

Ysgol Waunfawr Autumn Term 2020: Part 1

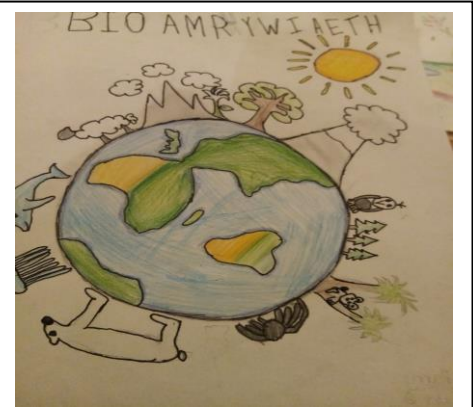

Dear parent here is the newsletter for this first half term. It has been a very different beginning to the new school year, and I wish to thank you for the support you have given the school during these testing times. It has been a pleasure getting to know your children, and they have all been very welcoming indeed. I hope the children enjoy their half term break- stay safe. The school will re-open on November 2nd.
